Pueblo, July 19.—A terrible murder was committed about 8 miles north of this city on Sunday evening. John Monroe and Martin Fleming, belonging to the D. & R. G. construction train, who were repairing the washout of last Monday; on Sunday morning they became involved in a quarrel; but their friends interfered and the disturbance ceased. In the evening, about 5:30, Fleming jumped from a flat car and beckoned Monroe to him. Monroe refused, whereupon Fleming pulled a pistol; Monroe started to run, when Fleming shot him in the back, the ball passing entirely through him and wounded a man in front of him. He was taken to the New York House where he lingered until 12 o'clock to-day. The coroner's jury found a verdict against Fleming, who is now in jail. Monroe was from Denver and Fleming from Kansas City.

Denver, July 19.—The Republicans Leadville special says that Policeman John Carville died yesterday from the wounds inflicted Saturday by Bakewell, Chief of police Watson and a company of citizens waited on the Sheriff and demanded that the murderer be delivered up; but the Sheriff refused and placed ten guards around the jail no disturbance has occurred. A preliminary trial is set for to-night and it is expected that Bakewell will not see daylight again. He is charged with two previous murders at Trinidad in '63 and '69, where he was deputy Sheriff.

Las Pinos, July 19.—At an informal meeting yesterday O'urray informed the Commissioner that one hundred lodges of White River Utes were on their way and would arrive Tuesday night. According to the request of O'urray and the Uncompagire Utes, the first grand council which was appointed for Monday, was postponed until Wednesday. Col. Moneybags, President of the Commission is quite hopeful that all matters will be amicably settled. McKee and the greater part of his cavalry broke camp on the Uncompagire river yesterday and left for Grand river.

Toledo, O., July 19.—A broken rail ditched a mixed excursion train to Indianapolis last night on the Wabash road. One person was killed, nine wounded. The company will care for the injured. A later dispatch says more people were injured by the Wabash train accident than first reported. Twenty were hurt, among them being Walter H. Rebus, private secretary of Gov. English; J. H. Gunn, Stewart Hunt, A. Mullen, seriously or fatally.

Paris, July 19.—The republican papers express great satisfaction at the success of Brigg's motion in the house of commons last week relative to the erection of a statue to Prince Imperial Prince Jerome. Napoleon's son Victor, was 18 years of age, Sunday, and the anti-Jeromish organ remarks he is, therefore, dynastically of age to assume the succession which was bequeathed him by the Prince Imperial.

Paris, July 19.—M. Weil of San Francisco waited on President Grevy, yesterday to present to him the felicitations of the French citizens of California on the occasion of the national fête.

Des Moines, July 19.—Mrs. Edwin Calvia and her son of 17 years was struck by lightning and killed on Sunday. They live five miles from here.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—Vedomosti declares that the aims of Russia are evident and certainly not offensive towards anybody; they consist only of the constitutions of the independent states of the peninsula, and in the opening of the Dardanelles. No power can have more moderate wishes; but it is necessary that they should be realized, even at a cost of great trouble; for no other flag than the Russian, ought to be allowed on shore, it would be better not to make any change in the affairs of the present. The semi-official Bessie says: "No intrigues or secret conspiracies are necessary to accelerate the collapse of the Turkish Empire. The situation has now come to a point where this only is desirable to give a free hand to Christians. A general insurrection might follow and streams of blood be shed; but the struggle would certainly not last long in consequence of the political and normal decadence of the Porte. The Bessie would prefer a pacific solution; but at the same time it says: The interest of all the powers demands that their designs should be achieved and that end should be quietly made. The Molara says: We are convinced that the powers, except Austria and Germany, agree in the plan to liquidate the Turkish Empire; Austria would also not be disinclined to share in such liquidation if she were allowed to take part of the booty; but she may wish peace preserved in order to wait for a more favorable time for re-opening the Eastern question; but it must be regarded as a proof of good luck for the different nationalities of the peninsula that Austria is now much occupied with home difficulties, therefore, not able to hinder the development of the affairs of the East.

Chicago, July 19.—The Detroit Post and Tribune has a letter from a business man, formerly of that city, but now of Aiken, South Carolina, enclosing a copy of the Aiken Journal which publishes an editorial regarding the Garfield and Arthur club just formed there. The point of it is, that, though the republicans claim they do not intend to meddle with state and local politics, they had better beware. It says that since the radicals have once more dared to show their front, we request again to go into the fight under the leadership of Hancock and English, and utterly annihilate them for the people of Aiken County. We pledge the democracy of South Carolina, that when November comes there will not be enough of the radical party left in Aiken County to act as pall bearers to their dead ideal—we will bury it out of sight under 5,000 majority, and there will not be a mourner left. Two statements in this article have striking significance: first, the declaration that the radicals have once more dared to show their front; second, the pledge that Aiken should give 5,000 majority for the democracy. That County cast 5,013 votes in '78 and 5,119 in 1870, evidently the journals pledge means that not a radical vote shall get into the ballot box in that county this fall.

London, July 19.—A correspondent at Kabul says: An unofficial delegation of Sirdars and Afghan gentlemen waited upon Abdurhaman Khan at Tutandar to inform him of the views in the Government. One of the members of this delegation was originally unfriendly to Khan, but has returned to Kabul completely won over by his (Abdurhaman Khan's) ability and good sense, and represents him to be a man of great knowledge, industry, and strength of character. The correspondent adds: For a moment it seemed we were on the eve of a satisfactory settlement, as in supporting Abdurhaman Khan, we had found Afghan Sur Dar, with whom the agreement is desirable and possible.

Cheney, D. T., July 19.—The reported engagement between two companies of the Seventh Cavalry and hostile Sioux is disbelieved by the authorities. The rumor must have originated from the fact that the Crow hunting party encountered a band of Sioux, a hundred miles north of Ft. Sarpy, the latter being victorious. Two companies of the Seventh Cavalry are out camping for the summer, hence the connection of the troops with the reported fight.

Montreal, July 19.—A boat upsetting on the rapids drowned Elliott Bryson, Ben. Bryson and sister.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—Vedomosti declares that the aims of Russia are evident and certainly not offensive towards anybody; they consist only of the constitutions of the independent states of the peninsula, and in the opening of the Dardanelles. No power can have more moderate wishes; but it is necessary that they should be realized, even at a cost of great trouble; for no other flag than the Russian, ought to be allowed on shore, it would be better not to make any change in the affairs of the present. A general insurrection might follow and streams of blood be shed; but the struggle would certainly not last long in consequence of the political and normal decadence of the Porte. The Bessie would prefer a pacific solution; but at the same time it says: The interest of all the powers demands that their designs should be achieved and that end should be quietly made. The Molara says: We are convinced that the powers, except Austria and Germany, agree in the plan to liquidate the Turkish Empire; Austria would also not be disinclined to share in such liquidation if she were allowed to take part of the booty; but she may wish peace preserved in order to wait for a more favorable time for re-opening the Eastern question; but it must be regarded as a proof of good luck for the different nationalities of the peninsula that Austria is now much occupied with home difficulties, therefore, not able to hinder the development of the affairs of the East.

Chicago, July 19.—The Detroit Post and Tribune has a letter from a business man, formerly of that city, but now of Aiken, South Carolina, enclosing a copy of the Aiken Journal which publishes an editorial regarding the Garfield and Arthur club just formed there. The point of it is, that, though the republicans claim they do not intend to meddle with state and local politics, they had better beware. It says that since the radicals have once more dared to show their front, we request again to go into the fight under the leadership of Hancock and English, and utterly annihilate them for the people of Aiken County. We pledge the democracy of South Carolina, that when November comes there will not be enough of the radical party left in Aiken County to act as pall bearers to their dead ideal—we will bury it out of sight under 5,000 majority, and there will not be a mourner left. Two statements in this article have striking significance: first, the declaration that the radicals have once more dared to show their front; second, the pledge that Aiken should give 5,000 majority for the democracy. That County cast 5,013 votes in '78 and 5,119 in 1870, evidently the journals pledge means that not a radical vote shall get into the ballot box in that county this fall.

London, July 19.—A correspondent at Kabul says: An unofficial delegation of Sirdars and Afghan gentlemen waited upon Abdurhaman Khan at Tutandar to inform him of the views in the Government. One of the members of this delegation was originally unfriendly to Khan, but has returned to Kabul completely won over by his (Abdurhaman Khan's) ability and good sense, and represents him to be a man of great knowledge, industry, and strength of character. The correspondent adds: For a moment it seemed we were on the eve of a satisfactory settlement, as in supporting Abdurhaman Khan, we had found Afghan Sur Dar, with whom the agreement is desirable and possible.

Cheney, D. T., July 19.—The reported engagement between two companies of the Seventh Cavalry and hostile Sioux is disbelieved by the authorities. The rumor must have originated from the fact that the Crow hunting party encountered a band of Sioux, a hundred miles north of Ft. Sarpy, the latter being victorious. Two companies of the Seventh Cavalry are out camping for the summer, hence the connection of the troops with the reported fight.

Montreal, July 19.—A boat upsetting on the rapids drowned Elliott Bryson, Ben. Bryson and sister.
